THE FARMERS' OPPORTUNITY

much of a load on yourself. It was the last feather which broke the mule's back. Don't make your payments too large. It's easy to promise big things for next fall, but the man who pays one dollar per bushel for corn meal and ten to fifteen cents a pound for meat, can't save enough out of six or seven cents cotton to make large payments.

After you and the owner of the land have agreed upon terms, he will give you a bond for title, and you in return will give him your notes, falling due in one, two three and four years. All papers of this kind should be fixed up by a Notary Public or a Justice of the Peace.

Now that your pegs are named and set, the next step is to DRIVE YOUR PEGS.

Call your family together; tell them of the plans you have made. It is very necessary that each one agrees to help in every way to carry out your plan. One balky horse will keep the load from moving on. Of course this means for them harder work, no money for ear rings, finger rings or showy things of any kind. It will mean for you to quit buying corn at one dollar per bushel and raise enough for your home supply. It will mean for you to sow more oats and wheat. It will mean for your wife to stay at home and raise chickens, eggs and vegetables to supply the family and to sell. It will mean for all to leave off buying tobacco, snuff, whiskey and coffee, drink the milk and sweeten the hot water with syrup. Raise everything you eat, but don't eat everything you raise. It also means that the family will have to do without buying a buggy for a while. Walk to church and let the mule or horse rest on Sunday, if he has been working all the week. It means that the family must not go on excursions. They must not go to circus shows or ride on "flying jennies." It simply means that every extra cent must go into that FARM."

Now, if you carefully follow out these plans, and any other which are wise, you will be surprised in a few years to find yourself living at home; at your own home.—Tuskegee Student.

A CURE FOR LOVE.

Take 14 ounces of Dislike, 1 lb. of Resolution, 4 grs. of Common Sense, 4 oz. of Experience, a large sprig of time, and three quarts of the cooling of Consideration. Set these over the fire of Love; sweeten with the Sugar of Forgetfulness, skim it with the Spoon of Melancholy, put it in the bottom of your heart, cork it with the cork of clear conscience, let it remain, and you will quickly be restored to your senses again; These things can be had at the home of Understanding, next door to Reason, on Prudent street, in the Village of Contentment—Ex.
